Dear Dick:

The attached letter was received by me, and I am consequently requesting that you, if possible, obtain release of the documents cited therein. Our Agency does have an approved contract with the [REDACTED] people, the objective of which is to evaluate the impact of various intelligence levels on the outcome of strategic war games. Our interest is in obtaining better guidance in collection efforts and in research and development toward future collection systems.

I would be happy to do anything further to expedite the acquisition of the requested information, if there is anything I can do.

Best personal regards,

/S/
